

1. Glenohumeral joint - where the ball head of the humerus fits into glenoid socket on the end of the scapula.
2. Acromioclavicular joint - where the acromion of the scapula (which comes over the top of the shoulder joint) joins with the clavicle
3. Clavicle - collar bone
4. Scapula - shoulder blade
5. Humerus; greater tubercle
6. Covering the head of the humerus is the synovial membrane of the joint capsule
7. The long head of biceps; tendons attach it to the humerus
8. The short head of biceps; tendons attach it to the scapula
9. The sternoclavicular joint
10. Humerus